
We are an organization dedicated to providing Equine Assisted Psychotherapy (EAP) and Equine Assisted Learning (EAL) to our nation's military, veterans, first responders and their families by strengthening resilience and improving coping skills. We blend our knowledge of mental health and horses to provide a quality effective therapeutic program for our clients.

"I think I now know why God made horses--especially mine--so big to take on the heaviness the world has put on us"

- quote from a client

Unfortunately, our speaker, Lindsay McKinnon, is not able to join because of an injury. We are grateful that she recorded a talk for us which will be available for viewing during the EAL and Join-up sessions.

Please be aware it addresses a very traumatic event and might be troubling for some people to watch. If you have any questions, please speak with a member of the treatment team.

Marty LaVor, White House photographer, photo journalist, author and artist has graciously donated his time and talent to our event. He will be taking photos throughout the event and at the photo booth.

Marty is an award winning photographer whose resume includes serving as Vice President White House News Photographers Association
